

Macbeth Character Descriptions

Macbeth

Macbeth is married to Lady Macbeth. He is a brave soldier. Macbeth does not trust other people and he worries that they don't like him. He is ambitious. Macbeth makes a lot of enemies. He is made king.

Duncan

Duncan is the King of Scotland. He is an old, generous, fair and kind man. His people love and respect him. He has two grown-up sons, Malcolm and Donalbain. He is murdered by Macbeth.

Lady Macbeth

Lady Macbeth is married to Macbeth. She is very ambitious. She is always able to persuade Macbeth to do what she wants him to do. She is stronger and more ambitious than her husband. She feels guilty about the crimes that she commits.

Banquo

Banquo is in Duncan's army and he is good friends with Macbeth. He is a brave soldier. The witches say that his son, Fleance, will become king. He dies courageously.

Macduff

Macduff is a lord and he does not like Macbeth as king. He wants revenge because Macbeth murdered his wife and family, so Macbeth is afraid of him. He is brave and, in the end, he cuts off Macbeth's head.

Malcolm

Malcolm is Duncan's oldest son, and so he should become king when his father dies. He escapes to England after his father is murdered because he is afraid he will be murdered too. He does not trust people. He is protective towards his younger brother, Donalbain.

The Witches

They meet when there is thunder and lightning. The witches are able to read minds and they can predict what will happen in the future. First, they tell Macbeth that he will be king, then they tell Banquo that he will not be king but his son will be.

