

Work with us ...

The SEAX Trust is a small but growing partnership of Special Academies within the community of Essex, whose Vision is to:

- Provide outstanding educational experiences for children and young people with special educational needs
- Put the well-being and achievement of pupils at the heart of all decision making

We consider the main asset towards achieving our Vision is our body of highly-valued staff and, in recognition, we implement a wide range of strategic and person-centred reward practices in all of our Trust Academies.

Be rewarded by us ...

- We offer a clear and competitive pay policy and progression route
- Holiday pay and salary which is paid evenly across the year for our support staff
- Teachers and Local Government Pension Scheme facilities
- Fringe-Area Allowance in our relevant schools
- A Flexible Working Policy and a range of full-time, part-time, job-share and temporary roles to suit your personal circumstances

Progress with us ...

- A focus to provide high quality professional development opportunities for all staff
- An extensive range of in-house training opportunities
- Experienced and dedicated practitioners who are keen to help you learn
- A range of exciting internal career opportunities

Be inspired by us ...

- Challenging roles and recognition of achievement
- A motivational strategy towards both education and business
- Staff involvement in wider decision-making
- A comprehensive Induction Procedure and full training for new employees
- Teachers who stay in the profession, at a time when nearly half leave in their first five years.

Be reassured by us ...

- A strategic aim to ensure a fair work/life balance
- A highly supportive organisational culture
- A firm commitment to the strengths of equality and diversity
- A sense of cohesion and belonging
- A policy to raise matters of concern
- An open relationship with our local Teaching & Support Staff Unions
- A staff Wellbeing Charter which includes an Occupational Health Service and free counselling support for staff and their immediate families
- An open-door policy between our Academies and the Trust
